OUR VALUES & SUSTAINABILITY

- Our respect for the planet and the environment have led us to focus our production on organic vegetables.
  We work hand in hand with our farmers to offer our customers a wide range of both : organic and conventional products.

- We apply specific sustainability standards, with a special focus on the responsible use of natural resources, the preservation of regional ecological balances and the improvement of soil fertility.

- Protected by Nature - In addition to conventional packaging, we also offer biodegradable and compostable netting, which can be recycled with organic waste :
